Resort Records to Attend NXNW '98 Music Conference

Company will be on lookout for Techno & Internet partners

Lake Tahoe, August 8, 1998: Resort Records president and CEO, Dave Delbridge will be attending the NXNW '98 Music Conference in Portland Oregon -- Thursday, August 20 - Saturday, August 22. The annual conference is designed to help independent recording labels and artists ("indies") improve their business activities.

According to Mr. Delbridge, reasons for attending the conference are specific -- to network with others sympathetic to the growing techno/dance genre and to discuss emerging Internet technologies. The company is eager to discover and implement new retailing and delivery mechanisms that will complete their "all-Internet" business model, drafted in 1994.

Friends & business partners are encouraged to meet with Mr. Delbridge at the conference. Please contact Resort Records for schedule information.

Company Background: Resort Records Inc. is an independent music recording label headquartered in Lake Tahoe, Nevada.
